Metaverse Challenge 2023: Bridging the virtual and physical worlds

Dear students,

Are you ready to build your own metaverse experience?

This year, PwC Hong Kong is hosting its first-ever Metaverse Challenge – a metaverse case competition where you can put your creative, consulting, and technical skills into practice by solving complex challenges based on real-world scenarios.

WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOU?

- Work with like-minded talents to solve real-world problems

- Connect with and learn directly from the professional developers working on The Sandbox platform

- Discover PwC's collaborative culture and career opportunities and learn to think like a top-tier consultant

- Win an internship opportunity or fast-track entry to PwC Hong Kong's Superday for final-year students

- For details, please refer to the event page:
  https://www.pwchk.com/en/events/metaversechallenge-2023.html
